THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.

(Elected June—July, 1886.)

Registered Electors are given, where possible, according to the Parliamentary Returns issued in 1885; and the Population according to the 1881.

The line or lines following the name of the constituency show the number of votes polled by the candidate at the general Election, the unsuccessful candidates being printed in italics; where to such return is given, there was no contest. The dates in brackets which follow the names of Members denote the year since when they have continued to represent their present constituencies without interruption.

ABBREVIATIONS.—The marginal letters C., U., G.L., and N. denote respectively a Conservative, Liberal, Liberal-Gladstonian Liberal, and Nationalist, or advocate of "Home Rule."
